Homecoming Court Campaigning Policies:

1. No more than $25 may be spent on campaigning. This includes printed materials or giveaways. This will create an equal opportunity for all candidates. All money spent is the responsibility of the candidate and cannot exceed $25.
2. Organizations and individual members of organizations may post on social media in support of any candidate.
3. Homecoming Court will be announced on January 31st. Campaigning for King & Queen will begin after the announcement of the Court.
4. Approved campaigning practices include:
  - a. Posting on social media
  - b. Distribution of printed materials, buttons, or flyers
  - c. Tabling in Trexler Lobby (Tables must be reserved through Astra)
5. Candidates may not send out mass emails to students on campus.
6. All campaigning efforts, including distributing of giveaways, flyers, tabling, etc., must be consistent with the University Posting Policy, Student Code of Conduct, and any other University Policies. Candidates should contact the Department of Student Engagement to discuss campaigning plans if the candidate is uncertain if their plans could violate University policies.
7. Campaigning of any kind is strictly prohibited in any academic setting, classroom, library, and all computer labs on campus. Campaigning beyond Queens' physical campus is prohibited and will result in disqualification.
8. University Departments, faculty, and staff may not spend resources in supporting candidates.
9. The defacing or removal of another candidates' campaign materials by opposing candidates, or their supporters, will not be tolerated and will result in disqualification.
10. Contact the Department of Student Engagement (Joshua Cauble) or CUB Royal Spirit committee (Jordan Humbird) regarding any questions, complaints, or to report any campaign violations.
